

Winter 2024
(menu changes daily)

SPARKLING WINES

CHAMPAGNE

WHITE - Champagne Chavost, Blanc d' Assemblage Brut Nature NV, Champagne, France. Grapes: Chardonnay + Meunier. Wonderful soft bubbles with bright, dry acidity. Raspberry, peach, hawthorn flower, linden flower.

115 dollars Bin No. 15

WHITE - L Aubry Fils, Petit Montagne Brut 1er NV, Montagne de Reims, Champagne, France. Grapes: Pinot Meunier, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Arbanne, Petit Meslier, Pinot Gris - limestone, crisp yellow pear, zesty freshness, bright white floral notes, lively.

98 dollars Bin No. 1

WHITE - Mousse et Fils, Blanc de Noirs, L'Or D'Eugène, Champagne, France. Grapes: Pinot Meunier, Pinot Noir. Minerals, lychee, light tannins, vegetal yeast backnote.

165 dollars Bin No. 11

WHITE - Pierre Gimmonnet & Fils, Blanc de Blancs, 1er Cru NV, Cuis, Cote de Blancs, Champagne, France. Grape: Chardonnay. Soft, rounded, crisp apples, light + elegant. Firm bubbles with dry minerality.

172 dollars Bin No. 9

WHITE - Gaston Chiquet, Special Club, Brut, 2014, Champagne, France. Grapes: 70% Chardonnay/30% Pinot Noir. Elegant. Fresh apricots, quince, flowers, marzipan with a kiss of honeycomb.

192 dollars Bin No. 5

WHITE - Egly-Ouriet, Grand Cru Ambonnay NV, Montagne de Reims, Champagne, France. Grapes: Pinot Noir, Chardonnay. Green tree fruits, honied brioche, dry/mineral backbone.

300 dollars Bin No. 10

WHITE - Veuve Fourny et Fils, Brut Premier Cru Grande Réserve NV, Champagne, France. Grapes: Pinot Noir, Chardonnay. Firm and tangy with tight beads. Kumquat, melon, yellow plum, ginger + lemon zest.

110 dollars

Bin No. 13

MÉTHODE CHAMPENOISE / PÉTILLEMENT NATUREL, ETC

WHITE - Le Petit Beaufort Millésime, 2019, Alice Beaufort, Champagne-ish, France. Grape: Chardonnay. - just outside of the official Champagne region. Fresh and youthful. Notes of apricot, ginger, crisp apple. Balanced tartness.

90 dollars

Bin. No 8

PINK - L'Opéra des Vins Les Années Folles, 2022, Jean-Pierre Robinot, Loire, France. Grapes: 60% Chenin Blanc and 40% Pineau d'Aunis. Adorable pink color +soft bubbles. A seriously crushable soft bubble sparkler with notes of peppered wild strawberries.

78 dollars

Bin No. 14

WHITE - VDF Pétillant Naturel "Suzette", Bruno Duchêne, Roussillon, France. Grape: Grenache Blanc. Dry yet thirst quenching with notes of white gooseberries + white flowers.

102 dollars

Bin No. 16

WHITE - "le pendu du raisin", Ilaria Bellotti - Cascina Degli Ulivi, Piemonte, Italy. Grapes: Grapes: Moscato, Cortese. A wildly fun sparkling wine with a color boarding on gold. Notes of guava, sweet golden tomatoes, white flowers and stones.

65 dollars

Bin No. 6

WHITE - Trebbiano Dell' Emilia, Camillo Donati, Emilia-Romagna, Italy. Grape: Trebbiano. Fruity but dry. Notes of stone fruits, ripe citrus, herbal backnotes and super soft bubbles

59 bottle

bin no. 4

RED - Roter Frizzante NV, Franz & Christine Strohmeier, Styria, Austria. Grapes: Zweigelt. Light dry sparkling red with soft bubbles and a full palate blast of macerated red fruits and spice.

96 bottle

Bin No. 18

PINK - Festejar! Rosé, 2022, Domaine La Bohème, Auvergne, France. Grapes: Super Duper chaggable with notes of strawberry, cranberry, cherry, spearmint and nutmeg.

78 dollars

Bin No. 3

RED - Saetti Rosso Viola, 2021, Luciano Saetti, Emilia-Romagna, Italy. Grape: Lambrusco di Salamino. Dark and luscious in color and texture. Dry with dark cherry + plum notes with an earthy backbone. A gem!

59 dollars

Bin No. 19

PINK - Schilcher NV, Franz & Christine Strohmeier, Styria, Austria. Grape: Blauer Wildbacher. A dark sparkling rosé made from native Blauer Wildbacher. Racy, full of sharp minerality and acidity with a touch of sweetness. Rare.

84 dollars

Bin No. 500

PINK - Rose Frizzante, 2020, Franz & Christine Strohmeier, Styria, Austria. Grapes: Blauer Wildbacher. Rose buds, red fruits, sharp minerality and acidity, delicate bubbles.

62 dollars

Bin No. 2

WHITE - Pet-nat Weiss, 2021, Piri Naturel - Christine Pieroth, Nahe, Germany. Grape: Scheurebe. Light + fresh with notes of fresh flowers and lime. A perfect front loader (to drink while deciding what to drink).

70 dollars

Bin No. 7

WHITE WINES

FRANCE

Pinot, 2021, Domaine Ostertag, Alsace, France. Grape: Pinot Gris. Aromatic white wine with notes of citrus and stone fruits, white flowers and light spicy notes. Medium-bodied with low acidity. The finish is dry and concentrated.

73 dollars

Bin No. 32

Riesling Les Jardins, 2021, Domaine Ostertag, Alsace, France. Grape: Riesling. Unfiltered but crystal clear. A dry riesling with lemon tartness, rounded notes of melon, a hint of coriander seed and bright minerality.

85 dollars

Bin No. 47

Cheverny Blanc "La Bodice," 2019, Hervé Villemade, Touraine/Loire, France. Grapes: 70% Sauvignon Blanc / 30% Chardonnay. Fresh and lively with fresh peach on the nose and palate. Superb acidity + minerality with some complexity from aging on the lees.

84 dollars

Bin No. 30

Blanche Roche Blanche, 2019, Julien Pineau, Touraine/Loire, France. Grape: Sauvignon Blanc. Luscious body, clean, earthy, delicate salty minerality balanced by the complex fruity acids.

54 dollars

Bin No. 23

"Champ Couturier", 2019, Domaine Alexandre Bain, Loire, France. Grapes: Sauvignon Blanc. Brûléed grapefruit. Mineraly with crisp lingering finish.

120 dollars

Bin No. 21

Pineau de Loire, 2021, Le Clos du Tue-Boeuf - Famille Puzelat, Loire, France. Grape: Chenin Blanc. A declassified Chenin because it's out of the AOC. Sharp green tomato acidity upfront with a hint of pine on the back. Very light in weight with a beautiful mineral finish. It doesn't demand food.

64 dollars

Bin No. 44

Cheverny Blanc “Frileuse”, Le Clos du Tue-Boeuf - Famille Puzelat, Loire, France. Grape: Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay. medium-bodied wine with crisp acidity. Notes of citrus, stone fruit and a slightly herbaceous salty finish.

77 dollars

Bin No. 311

Magic of Ju-Ju, 2021, Agnès et René Mosse, Loire, France. Grapes: 60% Chenin, 40% Sauvignon. Mosse is Boss!! A fun, dry white with tropical notes. Guava, pineapple and a hint of lychee. Lingering & thirst quenching. Smack!

65 dollars

Bin No. 301

Beaujolais Villages Blanc, 2020, Laura Lardy, Beaujolais, France. Grape: Chardonnay. Succulent stone fruits, dry finish with delicate buttery mid palate. Kiss of oak. Elegant!

60 dollars

Bin No. 31

Denogent “les sardines”, Macon-Villages 2020, Robert-Denogent, Burgundy, France. Grape: Chardonnay. A truly perfect bottle of wine. This will transport you to the mediterranean. Lean body, balanced tart fruit sassiness with the perfect lick of salinity.

81 dollars

Bin No. 22

Macon-Lugny, 2017, Domaine Saint-Denis, Burgundy, France. Grape: Chardonnay. Crisp, yellow plum, golden apple, light spice, full body.

74 dollars

Bin No. 20

“Vigne des Voises”, 2021, Rijckaert, Jura, France. Grape: Chardonnay. Soft with toasty vibes, ripe fruits + rich spice. A solid Chardonnay with smooth acidity.

82 dollars

Bin No. 33

Côte du Jura Les Sarres Savagnin, 2019, Rijckaert, Jura, France. Grape: Savagnin. Beautiful and luscious. Notes of honey, orange, quince. Crisp on the palate with lingering finish.

74 dollars

Bin No. 42

Arbois White, 2018, Domaine de la Pinte, Arbois, Jura, France. Grape: Savagnin. Honey and nuttiness on the nose. Palate is mild in acid with apple skins, peach pits with dry mineral finish.

78 dollars

Bin No. 34

Les Marnes, 2016 Arbois Pupillin, Tony Bornard, Jura, France. Grape: Savagnin. Extremely difficult to get! One of the more popular producers in the Jura. Warm with oxidative notes of toasted almonds, baked apples + spice

133 dollars

Bin No. 26

Fleur de Savagnin, 2019, Domaine de la Tournelle, Arbois, France. Grape: Savagnin. Apples + pears with a slightly pithy and earthy quality. Medium bodied with solid acidity and a slightly salty finish..

175 dollars

Bin No. 27

Trompe l'oeil, 2021, O2Y, Jura, France. Grapes: 50% Sylvaner + blend of Pinot Gris, Riesling, Gewurztraminer, Pinot Noir. The taste starts off by seeming rather simple and straightforward, you will soon find an unexpected aromatic + complexity from wood barrel aging.

99 dollars

Bin No. 306

La Rouvière, 2021, Martin Texier, Northern Rhone, France. Grapes: Clairette, Roussanne. Exceptionally balanced with notes of apple, pear, and salted almonds.

66 dollars

Bin No. 28

VDF Blanc Coume de L'Olla, 2021, Matassa - Tom Lubbe, Roussillon, France. Grapes: Macabeu, Muscat of Alexandrie, Muscat Petit Grain. Aromatic, bright + zingy , grapefruit zest, bone dry.

57 dollars

Bin No. 48

VDF Blanc Blossom, 2022, Matassa - Tom Lubbe, Roussillon, France. Grape: Muscat Petit Grain. Weightless + easy. Notes of lemon balm, orange blossom, dried chamomile + sweet almond.

87 dollars

Bin No. 43

VDF Blanc Cuvée Marguerite, Matassa - Tom Lubbe, Roussillon, France. Grapes: Macabeu, Muscat of Alexandria, Muscat Petit Grain. Candied orange peel, aromatic, tropical fruits, chamomile tea, lychee.

89 dollars

Bin No. 49

VDF Blanc Cuvée Alexandria, 2022, Matassa - Tom Lubbe, Roussillon, France. Grapes: Muscat of Alexandria. The wine comes from a single vineyard with red schist soils and is named after it. Notes of ripe peach, dried apricot, chamomile, tropical fruit, and honey.

96 dollars

Bin No. 313

Arlequin, 2022, Franco Francesco Pesci - Les Ânes Ailés, Banyuls-sur-Mer, France. Grapes: Grenache Blanc, Vermentino. Gently perfumed with notes of peach + lavender. Well balanced acidity, delicate salinity on finish.

69 dollars

Bin No. 314

La Luna, 2021, Bruno Duchêne, Rousillion, France. Grapes: Grenache Blanc, Grenache Gris, Xarel-lo. Mostly Grenache Blanc + Grenache Gris, with vines planted above the Med in Banyuls blended with some skin contact Xarel-lo from Penedès. Lots of rad personality with a succulent vibe and sea breeze salinity finish. Big Wow Vibes!
78 dollars Bin No. 302

Collioure Blanc “Vall Pompo”, Bruno Duchêne, Rousillion, France. Grape: Grenache Blanc. Dry, medium bodied, notes of white flowers, flinty mineral dryness, delicate salinity on finish.
126 dollars Bin No. 315

ITALY

Quinto Quarto Bianco, 2021, Franco Terpin, Friuli, Italy, Grapes: Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc - a graceful dance of broad aromas with fruity and floral nuances. Fresh and tasty, impossible to forget.
67 dollars Bin No. 40

Gattaia, 2016, Terre di Giotto, Tuscany, Italy. Grapes: Chenin Blanc, Sauvignon Blanc. An incredible expression of these two grapes. Very mineral focused, yet a voluptuous body. Dry and elegant.
85 dollars Bin No. 24 (none in wine room)

Vermentino di Toscana “Ariente”, 2020, Massa Vecchia. Tuscany, Italy. Grape: Vermentino. Apricot, tropical fruit, dried fruits, walnuts. Mild acidity, fresh finish.
132 dollars Bin No. 307

Tasto Bianco IGT, 2021, La Stesa. Tuscany, Italy. Grape: Vermentino. Light bodied white wine. Crisp, with notes of fresh squeezed citrus + aromatic ocean-side flowers.
70 dollars Bin No. 316

Gaia, 2020, Cantina di Giardino, Campania, Italy. Grapes: Fiano. Intense and complex aroma. Soft ripe yellow fruits on the nose backed by crushed ginger flower and ripe peaches.
84 dollars Bin No. 37

Etna Bianco Superiore “Aurora”, 2020, I Vigneri di Salvo Foti, Etna, Sicily, Italy. Grape: Carricante, Minella. Dry, persistent minerals, floral aromas.
79 dollars Bin No. 29

Munjebel Terre Siciliane White, 2020, Frank Cornelissen, Etna, Sicily, Italy. Grapes: Grecanico Dorato, Carricante. Very dry, earthy + a bit savory. High minerality with delicate smokiness. Hints of honey.

120 dollars

Bin No. 45

Terre Siciliane "Soki Soki", 2022, Tanca Nica, Pantelleria, Sicily, Italy. Grape: Zibibbo. 80 year old vines. Slightly rustic yet wonderfully aromatic with tropical fruit notes and a typical volcanic soil dryness one finds with Sicilian wines.

132 dollars

Bin No. 317

SLOVENIA

"Fossilni Breg", 2021, Domaine Ciringa, Styria, Slovenia. Grape: Sauvignon Blanc. Full bodied aromatic white with notes of apple, nectarine, and pear. Earthiness with a subtle kick of ginger.

60 dollars

Bin No. 312

SPAIN

La Bota de Florpower #84, Blanco 2016, Equipo Navazos, Sanlúcar de Barrameda, Spain. Grape: Palomino Fino. A beautiful dry white wine fermented in the style of Sherry (under flor) but it is not fortified. Fresh, soft acids, delicate toasted almond finish. Rare and can't get anymore!

78 dollars

Bin No. 35

Anima Mundi "Gres", 2020, Anima Mundi, Penèdes, Spain. Grapes: Xarel-lo. Rich minerality, ocean breeze salinity, yellow sundrenched fruits. Crisp + lovely.

45 dollars

Bin No. 41

Pla De Gates Blanc, 2022, Anna Espelt, Catalunya, Spain. Grapes: Grenache Blanc, Grenache Gris. Zesty citrus, ripe peaches, floral notes with a hint of sea spray.

53 dollars

Bin No. 308

PORTUGAL

Vinho Branco, 2021, Quinta da Palmirinha, Vinho Verde, Portugal. Grapes: Loureiro. Light, lemony color with refreshing floral and green fruit notes. Flinty backbone with honeycomb aftertaste.

59 dollars

Bin No. 300

AUSTRIA

Grüner Veltliner, 2020 Zwickl, Nikolaihof Wachau, Wachau, Austria. Grape: Grüner Veltliner. Demeter Certified. Dry. Great balanced acidity with full mouthfeel weight. Silky texture. Notes of dried aromatic grass, golden tart fruits. An excellently crafted wine.

75 dollars

Bin No. 303

Gelber Muskateller vom Opok, 2021, Weingut Maria & Sepp Muster, Styria, Austria. Grapes: Sauvignon, Chardonnay, Zweigelt. Spicy on the nose, super fresh in the mouth. Its exotic flavors and low ABV make it especially irresistible.

100 dollars

Bin No. 310

GERMANY

Ellergrub, 2019, Immich-Batterieberg, Mosel, Germany. Grape: Riesling. From 80 year old ungrafted vines. Floral aromas of yellow blossoms, apple, apricot, and marzipan. The palate is ripe with a stony core with a hint of salty mineral character on finish and refreshing acidity. Exceptional!

132 dollars

Bin No. 318

LEBANON

Chateau Musar White, 2010, Bekaa Valley, Lebanon. Grapes: Obaideh 60%, Merwah 40%. Most prized producer in Lebanon wine valley producing truly exemplary wines with old vintages being more + more difficult to access since the warehouse explosion in Beirut in 2020. Unlike anything you've probably had before - austere, piney, oaky, waxy, lemon zest, full bodied despite pale lemon color.

123 dollars

Bin No. 39

LOCAL / DOMESTIC

Mirabal Reserve Riesling, 2018, Robert Mirabal, Taos, New Mexico. Grape: Riesling. New Mexico grown, organic Riesling grapes vinified at Vivac. Dry, tart apple, dried aromatic summer grasses, full body structure.

38 dollars

Bin No. 38

Smockshop Band Columbia Gorge Spring Ephemeral, 2022, Hiyu, Hood River Valley, North Oregon, USA. Grapes: Gruner Veltliner, Chardonnay, Pinot Gris and Pinot Blanc. Notes of melon, mirabelle plum, Sichuan pepper and green high mountain oolong. Delicate, understated, precise.

113 dollars

Bin No. 309

SKIN CONTACT WINES

(other than Red Wines)

Vin Orange “La Bal des Masques”, 2020, Domaine Ostertag, Alsace, France. Grapes: Alsacian field + cellar blend that changes with each vintage (Gewurztraminer, Sylvaner, Pinot Gris, Riesling, Sylvaner, etc) So good it should be illegal! So expertly soft despite 3 wks on skins. Roses, orange fruit + blossoms, cantaloupe, lychee, raspberries - heart thump!

95 dollars

Bin No. 64

Cotillon des Dames, 2020, Jean-Yves Peron, Savoie, France. Grape: Jacquere. Dark honey, wheat grains, firm structure but lean finish. Really lovely + smooth.

120 dollars

Bin No. 66

Zeste, 2022, Les Sablonnettes, Loire, France. Grape: Chenin Blanc. Lovely peachy hue with stone fruits and sweet orange zest on the palate with aromatic notes and tannic finish.

67 dollars

Bin No. 600

Brutal Orange Macabeu, 2022, Matassa - Tom Lubbe, Roussillon, France. Grape: Macabeu. 3 week skin maceration from whole cluster grapes from 70 year old vines. Aromatic, light in texture yet palate filling + lingering with wonderful aromatic notes.

102 dollars

Bin No. 67

Fontanasanta Nosiola Vigneti delle Dolomiti IGT, 2021, Azienda Agricola Foradori, Trentino - Alto Adige, Italy. Grape: Nosiola. Despite 8mo long skin maceration, this orange/amber wine is very pale with clear juice. Very low in tannins, rich and dry notes of orange blossom and grapefruit juice.

117 dollars

Bin No. 63

Ribolla Gialla, Delle Venezie, 2016, Franco Terpin, Friuli, Italy. Grape: Ribolla Gialla. Golden dried fruit, wet stones, chestnut honey, tight tannins that let go easily as you drink it. Unique and wonderful.

135 dollars

Bin No. 62

Quinto Quarto Rebolla Gialla, Venezia Giulia, 2021, Franco Terpin, Friuli, Italy. Grape: Ribolla Gialla (Rebula). Honey, sun drenched wildflowers, orange peel.

75 dollars

Bin No. 65

Terpin Sialis, Bianco Sivi, Delle Venezie, 2016, Franco Terpin, Friuli, Italy. Grape: Pinot Grigio. 8 day skin contact without tight tannic structure. Elegant and beautiful. Aromatic spicy notes of ginger and golden fruits. Schwing!
150 dollars Bin No. 69

Radikon Sivi Pinot Grigio, 2018, Radikon, Friuli, Italy. Grape: Pinot Grigio. RADIKON - The legend. Blood orange, baked tamarind, hibiscus tea, peppery spices.
90 dollars Bin No. 61

Ghost Rider, 2009, Kabaj/Black Lamb, Goriška Brda, Slovenia. Grapes: local blend mostly Takaj + Rebula. SUPER UNIQUE! Oxidized and long aged with not much fruit left. Vegetal with retronasal notes of mezcal. Dry, lingering and a fucking unicorn to not pass up!
76 dollars Bin No. 601

ROSÉ WINES

Ultra Violet, 2021, Les Vins Pirouettes, Alsace, France. Grapes: Auxerrois, Pinot blanc, Pinot Noir, Muscat, Pinot Gris, Riesling, Gewurztraminer. Glou-Glou / chuggable wine. Red + white grape co-ferment. Light bodied with vibrant acidity. Minerally structure. Citrus + crushed berries.
66 dollars Bin No. 55

Lirac, 2022, Romain le Bars, Rhône Valley, France. Grape: Grenache, Mourvèdre, Syrah, Cinsault, Carignan. Light. Fruity. Lively from carbonic maceration. Dry finish and completely craveable. Classy but also a little sassy.
72 dollars Bin No. 403

Tavel, 2022, Romain le Bars, Rhône Valley, France. Grape: Grenache, Syrah. A dense rosé, with notes of raspberry, strawberry, blood orange, and a hint of violet.
72 dollars Bin No. 402

Tavel “La Combe Des Rieu”, 2021, Gaël Petit, Tavel, Rhône Valley, France. Grapes: Grenache, Cinsault, Carignan. Deep in character with notes of black cherry, tart cranberry, strawberries, woody spice and wet stone. Great now. Great in 5 years!
114 dollars Bin No. 53

La Chance Bandol, 2021, Domaine Les Terres Promises, Provence/Bandol AOC, France. Grapes: 50% Grenache, 40% Mourvèdre, 10% Cinsault. Really, really, really lovely! Lean structure, balanced and smooth acidity. A hint of green almonds + macerated summer fruits.

65 dollars Bin No. 57

Occhio di Sale, Rosato 2002, Giuseppe Cipolla, Sicily, Italy. Grapes: Nero D'Avola, Catarratto, Inzolia, Muscat D' Alexandrie. Grown in natural sulfur/salt mines. Nose has deep sulfur notes but the taste is super soft and fruity! Soft acidity, fresh strawberries, ocean salinity. Super unique + Super rad!

99 dollars Bin No. 59

Vinudilice Rosato, 2021, i Vigneri, Sicily, Italy. Grapes: red + white Grenache, Minnella, Nera Bianca, Grecanico. Super silky texture. Young crushed strawberries with an herbal character on the back with classic Etna minerality. Gorgeous!

88 dollars Bin No. 400

Lezèr, 2021, Azienda Agricola Foradori, Trentino - Alto Adige, Italy. Grapes: 68% Teroldego, 32% blend. Teroldego is an ancient grape related to Syrah and Pinot Noir. This is a light expression of the grape made specifically with summer in mind. Call it a red, call it a rosé but no matter what, drink it! A sexy bottle with lots of personality. Berries, mountain air + balanced minerality.

52 dollars Bin No. 54

"La Boutanche" Trollinger 2021, Andi Knauss, Wurttemberg, Germany. Grape: Trollinger (Schiava). Drinks wonderfully chilled. Fresh + juicy -cherries, pomegranate, wild strawberry, cranberries + piney herbs.

48 dollars - 1L bottle Bin No. 50

Lys-Rod, 2021, Franz & Christine Strohmeier, Styria, Austria. Grape: Blauer Wildbacher. Electric! Beautiful cranberry juice color, super smooth and light with delicate fruitiness. Perfect for drinking while deciding what to drink!

92 dollars Bin No. 52

Birdscape "Pink", Christian Tschida, 2022, Burgenland, Austria. Grapes: Blaufrankisch, Pinot Noir, dash of white varietals. Wild murky ruby color with awesome tartness. Mixed berries on the nose with a kiss of mountain herbs just after a rain. Lively activity on the tongue. Dry. Goes down too easy.

105 dollars Bin No. 401

Alumbro Clarete, 2019, Microbodega Alumbro, Castilla y León, Spain. Grapes: 50% Viura, 50% Garnacha. Truly love everything from this producer! A blend of red + white grapes creating a gorgeous rosé color. Light body. Bright acidity with perfect balance of summer fruits. Limited and crushable!

65 dollars Bin No. 56

RED WINES

FRANCE

Sansoufrir ... Rouge, La Gerbelle, Savoie, France. Grape: Mondeuse. Firm red grape reminiscent of Syrah on the nose. Palate is dry, earthy and very smooth. Mild tannins and delicious lingering finish.

58 dollars Bin No. 70

Champs Levat VDF, 2020, Jean-Yves Peron, Savoie, France Grape: Mondeuse Noire. Firm, stemmy nose with tart dark red fruits and peppercorn upfront. Clean, dry finish.

116 dollars Bin No. 128

Rouge-Gorge, 2020, Domaine de Bellivière, Loire, France. Grape: Pineau d'Aunis. The Loire's most aromatic red grape. Unique, green peppercorns, spices, dry tannins. Relaxes beautifully when decanted.

54 dollars Bin No. 78

Un Été Partagé, 2021, Laurent Saillard, Loire, France. Grape: Grolleau. Fresh and lean. Soft juice with dried flowers on the nose and delightful acids on the finish. Only 10.5% abv...easy to drink while also deciding what else to drink.

48 dollars Bin No. 76

Adonis, 2021, La Grapperie, Loire, France. Grape: Pinot d'Aunis. a cooler year than previous vintages makes this a little lighter/brighter and more delicately perfumed than recent years. Notes of a peppercorn blend with wild strawberries with just enough minerality and tannins to balance the fruit.

83 dollars Bin No. 79

VDF Rouge "Saint Germain", 2020, Claire et Florent Bejon, Loire, France. Grape: Cabernet Franc. A real smack you in the face Cab-Franc (in the best way). Notes of deep ripe black fruits with a hint of black currant muskiness and peppercorn earthiness.

72 dollars Bin No. 73

Ruben, 2022, Calvez-Bobinet, Loire, France. Grape: Cabernet Franc. Bold, full, farmy, earthy mushrooms, stewed black fruits, hint of tobacco with balanced tannins.

65 dollars Bin No. 115

VDF Cabernet Franc, 2020, Agnès et René Mosse, Loire, France, Cabernet Franc. Red fruits, earthy, leather back note. A great alternative to Cabernet Sauvignon.

70 dollars Bin No. 103

Cheverny La Gravotte, 2022, Le Clos du Tue-Boeuf Famille Puzelat, Loire, France. Grapes: Pinot Noir, Gamay. Bright notes of sour cherry, raspberry, strawberry and earthiness.

90 dollars

Bin No. 81

La Guerrierie, 2021, Le Clos du Tue-Boeuf Famille Puzelat, Loire, France. Grapes: Côt (Malbec), Gamay. In Côt we trust! The Loire legend, Thierry Puzelat, has created wine that is deliciously full bodied, but so smooth and quaffable that, like Nic Cage, is gone in 60 seconds!

75 dollars

Bin No. 117

Menard Rouge, 2022, Les Sablonnettes, Loire, France. Grapes: Cabernet Sauvignon, Groslot, Cabernet Franc, Gamay. Light bodied red with lively activity on the tongue. Red fruits, plums, a kiss of forest floor funk with crisp acidity.

58 dollars

Bin No. 123

Les Copines Aussi, 2022, Les Sablonnettes, Loire, France. Grape: Gamay blended with some Chenin Blanc in 2021. Garnet and cloudy in the glass with pretty scents of black cherry pit, pomegranate concentrate, apple core and limestone. Buoyant and delightfully fruity with zesty minerality and vibrant acidity.

58 dollars

Bin No. 134

Cheverny Les Ardilles, 2021, Hervé Villemade, Loire, France. Grapes: Pinot Noir, Gamay. A dense and mature wine with notes of black fruits, orange, autumn blossoms, peppery spice and a slightly salty finish.

77 dollars

Bin No. 82

Concerto di Venezia, 2021, Jean-Pierre Robinot - Opera du Vin, Loire, France. Grapes: 70% Cabernet Franc, 30% Pineau d'Aunis. heady nose of wild strawberry and white pepper with a lively palate of red fruits, a kiss of tannins and refreshing acidity. Vibrant and incredibly compelling.

110 dollars

Bin No. 135

“Les GélINETTE”, 2021, Domaine Mark Angeli Ferme de la Sansonnière, Anjou, Loire, France. Grape: Grolleau Noir. Unique with firm structure, black fruits, leathery maturity, forest floor funk, licorice + spicy herbs (oregano-esque). Benefits from decanting.

114 dollars

Bin No. 136

La Bohème “SUPER B”, 2021, Domaine La Bohème, Beaujolais, France, Grape: Gamay. Buoyant with notes of garden blooms, root veggies, sour cherry and a hint of earthy licorice and noticeable tannins.

86 dollars

Bin No. 159

Morgon "Vieilles Vignes", 2020, Guy Breton, Beaujolais, France. Grapes: Gamay. They may call him P'tit Max, but his wines are anything but p'tit in flavor. This gamay is made from his oldest vines and they display strong minerality and a proper hit of acidity.

75 dollars

Bin No. 74

Fleurie, 2020, Jean Foillard, Beaujolais, France. Grapes: Gamay. Deep and smoky, silky smooth—you'll know how it feels to have your palate embraced by a taste of Fleurie. The lacy black undergarments on the label reveal this wine's true purpose: to seduce.

89 dollars

Bin No. 85

Fleurie, 2020, Thibault Ducroux, Beaujolais, France, Gamay. Fleurie is known to be one of Beaujolais' most fragrant, elegant Cru's and this first ever bottling from Thibault Ducroux is certainly no exception. Lightly structured, fine tannins, crunchy red fruit, violets and a hint of spice.

87 dollars

Bin No. 160

Pirouette Pinot Noir, 2018, Hubert & Christian, Alsace, France. Grape: Pinot Noir. A super fun, young, light and lean expression for a Pinot Noir. Balanced fruit with a perfect mineral finish. Very easy to drink and at that price - yeeeeessss!

60 dollars

Bin No. 92

Kovè, 2021, Tailleurs Cuilliers, Bugey, France. Grapes: Gamay, Mondeuse. Velvety with aromas of exotic spices,raspberry and currants + graphite.

95 dollars

Bin No. 137

Irancy, 2018, Benoît Cantin, Burgundy, France, Grapes: Pinot Noir. A blend of several select vineyards, grown in Kimmeridgian limestone (ancient sea bed). A well structured and mature pinot.

75 dollars

Bin No. 71

"Les Topons", 2020, Domaine Truchetet, Nuits-Saint-Georges, Burgundy, France. Grape: Pinot Noir. Classic in composure, dark fruits with hints of fleshy plum, violet, peppery spice with well built tannins.

195 dollars

Bin No. 86

Monthelie 2020, Clarisse de Suremain, Burgundy, France. Grape: Pinot Noir. Very smooth. A wonderful dinner companion. Blackberries on the nose. Lean + bright palate with balanced earthy bitterness on the finish.

135 dollars

Bin No. 72

Volnay, 2018, Domaine Chassorney - Fred Cossard, Burgundy, France. Grape: Pinot Noir. Stunning deep color, smooth minerality, dense, soft tannins. Aromas of dark cherries, blueberries, peonies, thyme.

207 dollars Bin No. 116

Arbois Rouge "Pinot Noir Sur la Côte", 2020, Jean-Francois Ganevat, Arbois, Jura, France. Grapes: Pinot Noir. A deep and velvety Pinot Noir with zero sulfur. Lightly perfumed with forest flowers, forest leaves, soft fruits + elegant minerality.

125 dollars Bin No. 77

L'ami Karl, 2018, Domaine de la Pinte, Arbois, Jura, France. Grape: Poulsard. Vibrant red fruits and white pepper. Beautiful garnet color. Light in texture with silky soft tannins.

104 dollars Bin No. 126

Vieilles Vignes Poulsard, 2020, Benedicte & Stephane Tissot, Arbois, France. Grape: old vine Poulsard. Light yet rich with aromatics. Crunchy + energetic with balanced tannins.

105 dollars Bin No. 132

Ploussard "Point Barre", 2020, Domaine Bonard, Arbois, Jura, France. Grape: Poulsard. Light, delicate almost translucent red wine that gives off aromas of red currants, citrus and saddle leather with a touch of cinnamon.

150 dollars Bin No. 139

Trousseau "le Ginglet", Arbois Pupillin AOC, 2020, Domaine Bonard, Arbois, Jura, France. Grape: Trousseau. Light, savory, white pepper, mushrooms + red fruits.

150 dollars Bin No. 140

Cailloux, 2021, Domaine La Bohème, Auvergne, France. Grapes: Pinot Noir, Gamay. Powerful, rich and smokey with ripe fruits and lots of finesse.

95 dollars Bin No. 122

Gourmandise, 2021, Julien Peyras, Languedoc, France. Grape: Cinsault. Bright, light, playful unripe fruit/unripe strawberry type acids balanced with fresh ripe strawberry fruit.

60 dollars Bin No. 131

Côtes-du Rhône "La Sagesse", 2020, Domaine Gramenon, Rhône, France. Grape: Grenache. A voluptuous wine with perfectly rounded baking spices on the back and a dry finish. Truly sexy.

88 dollars Bin No. 113

Crozes-Hermitage “C’est les Printemps”, 2022, Dard & Ribo, Rhône Valley, France. Grape: Syrah. A super fresh + youthful Syrah for drinking now. Notes of plum, violets, herbs, clove + grainy tannins.

96 dollars Bin No. 157

Saint-Joseph, 2021, Dard & Ribo, Rhône Valley, France. Grape: Syrah. A full bodied red but surprisingly fresh + lively compared to other Syrah from the same region. Notes of Blackberry, prune, violet, leather.

165 dollars Bin No. 158

VDF “Pousse Cailloux”, 2022, Romain Le Bars, Rhône Valley, France. Grapes: Grenache Noir, Syrah, Cinsault. A super duper fun + youthful fruit forward, light in texture red wine! Luscious red fruits + smooth acidity.

62 dollars Bin No. 96

Hervé Souhaut Syrah, 2022, Domaine Romaneaux-Destezet, Rhone Valley, France. Grape: Syrah. Violets, bacon, and black cherry all interplay on the nose. Deep black cherry and juicy plum flavors meshed with candied violets and cool strawberry flavors on the palate. The moderate tannins highlight the fruity components on the finish.

83 dollars Bin No. 162

Hervé Souhaut La Souteronne, 2022, Domaine Romaneaux-Destezet, Rhone Valley, France. Grape: Gamay. Nearly purple in the glass with a garnet rim. The nose is an enticing array of strawberry, black cherry, plum, fig paste, smoky herbs and pounded stones.

83 dollars Bin No. 161

Hervé Souhaut Cessieux Saint-Joseph, 2022, Domaine Romaneaux-Destezet, Saint-Joseph, France. Grape: Syrah. An explosion with notes of orange, anise, violets, baking spices, red cherries with a dose of black pepper and mineral rich finish.

150 dollars Bin No. 163

“La Preyna” Rouge, 2022, Martin Texier, Rhône Valley, France. Grapes: Cinsault, Grenache. Light bodied everyday red wine with playful notes of smoked cherries, rose + plums.

63 dollars Bin No. 141

Rouge Coume de l’Olla VDF, 2022, Matassa - Tom Lubbe, Rousillion, France. Grape: Grenache Noir, Grenache Gris, Macabeu. Cloudy, magenta complexion with notes of red berries, roses, straw and orange.

78 dollars Bin No. 94

French Disko, 2022, Matassa - Tom Lubbe, Roussillon, France, 2022 Grape: Cinsault. A playful wine with lots of fragrant red fruits married with depth of dried fruits. Low tannins + serotonin dense happiness in every sip.

138 dollars

Bin No. 142

Romanissa, 2022, Matassa - Tom Lubbe, Roussillon, France, Grape: Grenache (Lledoner Pelut). Vibrant fruity raspberry nose with hint of earthy funk, low tannins + silky texture.

99 dollars

Bin No. 143

Tattouine, 2022, Matassa - Tom Lubbe, Roussillon, France. Grapes: Grenache Gris, Carignan. light red wine with aromas of cherries, strawberries and a little mushroom - underpinned with a fine spiciness. A wild beauty with proper juiciness.

111 dollars

Bin No. 144

Mambo Sun, 2019, Matassa - Tom Lubbe, Roussillon, France. Grapes: 30% Macabeu and 70% Grenache grapes of all three color variations (Noir, Gris, Blanc). A Light and chillable "red". Dark fruit nose with cherry tartness on the palate. Earthy mid palate with hints of rosemary. You'll be dancin'... Yeah!

110 dollars

Bin No. 95

Brutal, 2022, Matassa - Tom Lubbe, Roussillon, France. Grapes: Syrah, Muscat Petit Grains - Such a wild wine! Grapefruit zest oil, salted raspberries, musky tropical fruits. A little nervous but really playful.

90 dollars

Bin No. 109

Ace of Spades "Les Myrs" Rouge, 2021, Matassa - Tom Lubbe, Roussillon, France. Grapes: Carignan, Mourvèdre. -Buoyant cranberry acid upfront but calms and opens up to bramble fruits + lemon tart awesomeness.

90 dollars

Bin No. 102

VDF Rouge "Inès", 2022, Bruno Duchêne, Roussillon, France. Grape: Grenache. 9mo whole cluster in amphora with only 300 bottles produced with each vintage!! Wonderful, velvety, dark fruits + earthy mineral balance.

108 dollars

Bin No. 145

Ellittico da Buon Telegrafista, 2022, Vinyer de la Ruca, Roussillon, France. Grape: Grenache, Carignan. Heady with berries and woody herbs, this is a wine with a wonderful sense of place.

135 dollars

Bin No. 146

Esta Fête, Domaine Carterole, Banyuls-sur-Mer, 2022, Roussillon, France. Grapes: Grenache, Carignan. Festive red wine, medium bodied with dark fruit, blackberry, blueberry and plum with a hint of liquorice in the end.

87 dollars

Bin No. 147

A Table!, 2021, Clos Des Mourres, Vaucluse, France. Grape: 100% Syrah. Singular in a dark, concentrated blackberry fruit note way with slow release of unripe fruit tannins. Smooth, round - no sharp edges. Nice chilled + tasty with or without food.

55 dollars

Bin No. 75

Castel Vieilh La Salle, Bordeaux NV, Earl Castel Vieilh la Salle, near the Entre-Deux-Mers region (smack dab between the Right and Left Bank), France. Grapes: Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot. Classic in flavor and wonderful structure. Great balance between woody/peppery Cabernet notes and the compelling fruit weight of Merlot.

65 dollars

Bin No. 120

Hyper Franc, 2019, Chateau Meylet, Bordeaux, France. Grape: Cabernet Franc. Light + dry texture with ripe raspberry, dried leaves, herbs + the bell pepper note typical to Cab Franc.

70 dollars

Bin No. 97

ITALY

COS Pithos Rosso, 2022, COS, Vittoria, Sicily, Italy. Grape: 60% Nero d'Avola, 40% Frappato. Cranberry, cherry, light earth, and bright minerality. A sleek texture, lean tannins, and bright acidity make for lip-smacking juice, with notes of raspberries & mandarin oranges.

70 dollars

Bin No. 106

COS Cerasuolo di Vittoria, 2018, COS, Vittoria, Sicily, Italy. Grape: Nero d'Avola, Frappato. Aromas of dried cherry, chocolate, smoke, wild herbs, and exotic spices. Soft round fruity medium bodied palate with a good dose of acidity.

100 dollars

Bin No. 148

Passofonduto, 2022, Giuseppe Cipolla, Central Sicily, Italy. Grapes: Nero d'Avola, Nerello Mascalese. Light and murky with faint red fruit notes, earthy, hibiscus, rose water with a mineral rich mid-palate density, giving the wine a lovely length.

150 dollars

Bin No. 149

Firri Firri, 2022, Tanca Nica, Pantelleria, Sicily, Italy. Grapes: Catarratto, Pignatello, Inzolia. An absolute treasure of perfection in a bottle. The wine has an attractive Pousard-like color, notes of pomegranate, mandarin and liquorice, a juicy texture with refreshing tannins and a salty finish.

132 dollars

Bin No. 150

Munjabel PA Terre Siciliane Red, 2018, Frank Cornelissen, Etna - Sicily, Italy. Grape: Nerello Mascalese. Exceptionally lucious with an elegant mid-palate. Rich dark fruits with delicate herbal backnotes and lots of minerality.

185 dollars

Bin No. 125

Vino Rosso "I Vigneri", 2021, Vigneri di Salvo Foti, Etna, Sicily, Italy. Grapes: Nerello Mascalese, Nerello Cappuccio. So damn good! Stunning ruby color with soft fruit upfront, spice, dry mineral finish. Perfect balance of lean, yet expressively full.

79 dollars

Bin No. 98

Vino Rosso "Vinupetra", 2019, Vigneri di Salvo Foti, Etna, Sicily, Italy. Grapes: Nerello Mascalese, Nerello Cappuccio, Grenache, Francisi. Opulent, bramble fruits, cassis, stone.

149 dollars

Bin No. 99

Toscana Rosso, 2019, Massa Vecchia, Tuscany, Italy. Grapes: 80% Sangiovese, 20% Alicante. Notes of rural and rustic elements, ranging from ripe red fruit to earthy undergrowth, dried flowers, roots and wild herbs. Full and enveloping.

89 dollars

Bin No. 104

La Querciola, 2017, Massa Vecchia, Tuscany, Italy. Grapes: 80% Sangiovese, 20% Alicante. Aromas of red berries and cherry fruit accompanied by spicy notes of cedarwood, fresh coffee beans and dried herbs. Complex on the palate, with a firm tannin structure, beautiful fruit and spice and a great acid nerve in the finish.

158 dollars

Bin No. 151

Rosso di Montalcino, 2018, Fonterenza, Tuscany, Italy. Grape: Sangiovese Grosso. Working in concert since 1997, twin sisters Margherita and Francesca Padovani make the only biodynamic wine in Montalcino. Smooth, structured and juicy, the savory palate delivers succulent black cherry, ripe plum all framed in firm yet fine tannins. Fresh acidity keeps it balanced.

110 dollars

Bin No. 118

Barbacòn - Sol Valgella Valtellina Superiore DOCG, 2019, Barbacòn, Lombardy, Italy. Grape: Chiavennesca (local name for Nebbiolo). Fresh, Alpine version of Nebbiolo with red fruits, alpine herbs + spice and elegant softness.

84 dollars

Bin No. 152

Vino Rosso "Le Mat du Raisin", 2020, Cascina Degli Ulivi, Piemonte, Italy. Grapes: Barbera, Dolcetto. A wild ride wine. Full in the glass, but a mineral quality that lifts on the palate. Earthy, black olives, oregano + dried red and black fruits.

74 dollars

Bin No. 108

Back Grin, 2020, Fabio Gea, Piemonte, Italy. Grapes: Grignolino - sub-aqua fermentation (meaning part of fermentation occurs under water). Super light body. A young wine to be consumed right away. Bright acidity, stemmy mid palate. Dry finish.
108 dollars Bin No. 119

Dolcetto d'Alba Pinotto, 2020, Fabio Gea, Piemonte, Italy. Grape: Dolcetto. Smooth and aristocratic for a Dolcetto. Certainly the most elegant Dolcetto we've ever had. A mad genius, Fabio continues to deliver!
120 dollars Bin No. 124

"Disobedient" Vino Rosso Nebbiolo, 2015, Alessandro e Gian Natale Fantino, Piemonte, Italy. Grape: Nebbiolo. A beautiful and vivid Nebbiolo. Rich on the palate but wonderfully translucent. Notes of dark fruits, sweet tobacco, caramel undertones.
145 dollars Bin No. 91

Sialis Merlot, 2015, Franco Terpin, Friuli, Italy. Grape: Merlot (the varietal indigenous to the Collio). Hints of fruit jam follow aromatic spicy tones of vanilla, ginger and mint. Minimal sweetness that balances an intoxicating freshness. Harmonious.
115 dollars Bin No. 112

SPAIN

Blankafurti, 2022, Jordi Llorens, Catalunya, Spain. Grape: Cabernet Sauvignon, Garnacha Tinta, Pallerada, Syrah. Aged on lees for 6mo gives this wine a wide range of nuances, where ripe red fruit combines elegantly with notes of white pepper.
55 dollars Bin No 111

ELSEWHERE

Jolly Wine, 2020, Vina Na Slupkach - Petra Bredova, Moravia, Czech Republic. Grapes: St. Laurent, Zweigelt. full of character + body! Umami pepperiness that develops into a bold burst of rose hips, cedar, sour cherries and smoke. Lean minerality.
79 dollars Bin No. 114

Indigo, 2017, Franz & Christine Strohmeier, Styria, Austria, Grape: Blauer Wildbacher. An inky red with deep + intriguing complexity of herbal notes, cranberry, cherry, grapefruit and a bit of strawberry with great acidity and earthy tannins.
118 dollars Bin No. 89

Rot 10, 2020, Franz & Christine Strohmeier, Styria, Austria. Grape: Zweigelt (Rotburger). Lots of energy, beautiful mouthfeel and wild, dark fruit flavor like black cherry and blackberry. Electrifying and endless! Great long aging potential.

126 dollars

Bin No. 153

LOCAL / DOMESTIC

Tzum Elder, 2021, Hiyu Wine Farm, Hood River Valley, North Oregon, USA. Grape: Pinot Noir. Electric, juicy, and wonderfully aromatic, it offers delicate notes of bright red fruit, high-toned florals, & mineral elegance.

150 dollars

Bin No. 110

Slipper Sipper Nouveau, 2021, Las Jaras Wines, Sebastopol, California, Grapes: 65% Zinfandel, 35% Carignan. The wine is mega delicious. It has a nose full of blackberry, red plum and cocoa. The acidity is balanced and zippy and in the finish there is cocoa powder-like tannin that keeps the wine fresh on the palate.

51 dollars

Bin No. 154

Go Rick Red!, 2021, Extradimensional Wine Co, Yeah!, Sonoma County, California. Grapes: 40% Dry Creek Valley Zinfandel, 25% Old Vine Carignane, 17% Old Vine Grenache, 10% Old Vine Mourvèdre, 8% Chenin Blanc. Herb dusted cherries, satsuma peel, five spice. Medium bodied and balanced acidity.

96 dollars

Bin No. 155

Marvelous Mourvèdre, 2022, Extradimensional Wine Co, Yeah!, Sonoma County, California. Grape: 85% Old Vine Mourvèdre, 10% Old Vine Grenache, 15% Old Vine Carignane. Fresh and bright with cranberry + red fruits building to an earthy depth. Transformative! It is wonderful today with a decant or, like you, it will develop beautifully for years to come.

123 dollars

Bin No. 156